Dear Sir,

As a member of the American Numismatic Society, I saw in the April number that a Catalogue was issued to be distributed among the members. You would place me under many obligations, by sending me a copy.

Thanking you in advance
I am Very Respectfully Yours

Mr. Alexander M. Hanline,
23 & 25 South Howard Street,
Baltimore, Maryland.

My dear Sir:-

I have received your letter of October 9th, and I think you have confused your membership in the American Numismatic Association with this Society in which you are not a member, though it would give me great pleasure to present you name for associate membership.

The catalogue in question was delivered free to each member of this Society. To those who are not members, it is sold at the price of one dollar. There are still some copies left, and I can furnish it at that price if you desire.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
